

KNITTERNET WORKSHOP

By: Magnus Eriksson (SE) & Geraldine Juarez (US/MX)

Geraldine Juárez and Magnus Eriksson, members of the art Collective Free Art and Technology (F.A.T LAB) will held a series of talks in highschools to present their work related with net politics, art and activism and facilitate a series of speed workshops where the students will be encourage to participate in the creation of a social sculpture titled "Knitternet", to be presented in Click Festival this year.

Knitternet is a space where all of us can imagine how to improve, fix or rebuild the internet using the power of craftsmanship as a starting point. Knitting as technology for reflecting, discussing, dissenting, protesting and expressing our political views on the current state of the internet and democracy for create a network of possibilities and desires with our hands, ideas and with others.
